

Jamie Long Biography

Jamie is an accomplished executive with over 20 years experience in manufacturing finance. She has held director and executive level roles in Fortune 500 and privately held companies. Jamie has worked in capital goods, consumer products, and industrial equipment. Over the years, Jamie has been responsible for General, Cost Accounting, Finance, Credit, Treasury, Supply Chain, IT, Human Resources, and Operations.

In addition to her experience in industry, Jamie taught Management, Operations Management, and Intro to Computers at East Carolina University. She also worked in non-profit and grants management early in her career. She holds a BSBA in Accounting and a MBA from East Carolina University in Greenville, NC.

Jamie is an active member of Institute of Management Accountants where she serves as NC Triangle Chapter Past President and VP of membership. Jamie originally joined as a NAA member in 1984.

She is currently working as an Executive recruiter MRI of Raleigh. MRI is the world's largest recruiting organization with over 1100 offices worldwide. MRI Raleigh is consistently rank in the Top 25 Offices worldwide. Jamie manages the Accounting, Finance, and Supply Chain recruiting.