

Thomas Turner

Partner

Tom has over 30 years of diverse business experience including serving as a partner and client service director in a regional and “Big 4” CPA firm, working as the CFO of a large private company and providing corporate finance services to middle market companies.

Tom has extensive experience in Sarbanes-Oxley compliance, having coordinated and implemented multiple SOX initiatives for US and international companies. In addition, he has significant experience in private industry managing a 50 person accounting, IT and treasury staff where he was responsible for the financial integrity of the parent company and twelve subsidiaries.

Tom’s background enables him to immediately adapt to a client’s environment and to quickly establish relationships with management, employees and external advisors. Tom received an MBA from Emory University’s Goizueta Business School.